Riva is the leader in CRM and email integration.

Since 2008, we have developed server-side integrations for a dozen of the world's best CRM systems and five corporate email platforms. Riva syncs Sugar directly to Exchange, Office 365, Gmail and Google Apps, IBM Notes, GroupWise, and Marketo. With no client-side plug-ins to install, configure, manage, or fix.

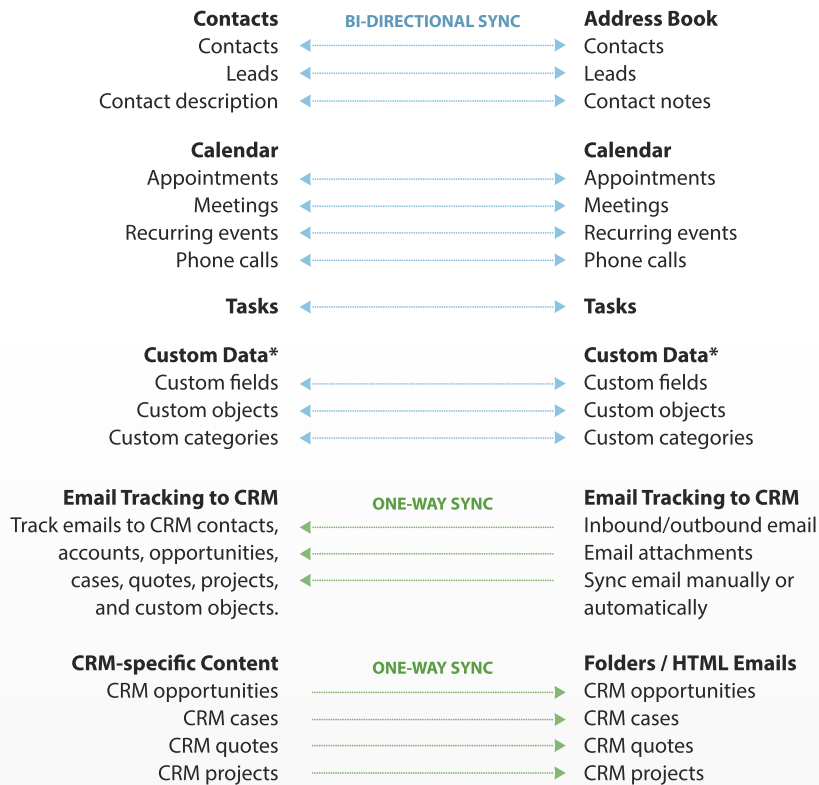

The reason why over 1,000 companies globally trust Riva – including 35 Fortune 500 companies, 12 of the world's largest banks, and hundreds of SMBs – is because Riva syncs CRM data reliably. We could tell you about Riva's advanced sync options that drive CRM adoption and sales productivity, but the #1 reason why companies choose Riva is because they are looking for a better and more reliable way to sync their CRM contacts, calendar events, tasks, email, opportunities, cases, and custom objects.

So, what makes Riva better than alternative sync solutions?

Riva syncs CRM data more reliably. Riva is easier to manage. We sync more CRM data. We offer Riva Cloud and Riva On-Premise solutions (that support any combination of on-premise, cloud, and hybrid environments). Riva syncs CRM data to mobile devices and the CRM data is available in online and offline modes. We support Good Technology, MobileIron, and CipherCloud. Riva syncs custom fields and custom objects. We offer advanced contact sync filters, one-way and two-way sync, and much more!
